EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Peyton Business Center is a two story concrete tilt-up Flex building totaling 122,500 SF across its two floors. This building has heavy 480V Electrical Service and is currently built out as 100% office space, however, portions could be converted to light Industrial.

Peyton Business Center was built in 1980 as the corporate headquarters for Payless

Drugs and later became the corporate headquarters for Hollywood Video. In 2013 the property went through an extensive interior renovation bringing the building to a Class A flex office building. The building features over 700 parking stalls and has I-5 exposure making this property ideal for corporate headquarters, office, flex, bio science, production, or other R&D uses.
